

PRAYER WALK

to celebrate St Francis' day
Thursday 4th October 2012

St Francis of Assisi, with his generosity, his simple faith, his passionate devotion to God and man, together with his love of nature and deep humility, is one of the most cherished saints in modern times. He is the patron saint of ecology and is renowned for his closeness to God's creatures.

A prayer walk on this day, in the Suffolk countryside with its rich flora and fauna, is a fitting way to celebrate St Francis' day.

The walk, in the Fynn Valley area is about 3 miles long, and will take us through meadows, arable fields and water meadow. The walk will end at approximately 1 pm. After a walk it is our delight to visit a local hostelry together for refreshments !
