Anthem texts for February

2 Nunc dimittis

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace : according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen : thy salvation;
Which thou hast prepared : before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles : and to be the glory of thy people Israel.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

Words: Luke 2: 29 – 32

Music: Geoffrey Burgon 1941 – 2010

9 Forth in thy name, O Lord, I go

Forth in thy name, O Lord, I go, my daily labour to pursue; thee, only thee, resolved to know, in all I think or speak or do. The task thy wisdom hath assigned O let me cheerfully fulfil; in all my works thy presence find, and prove thy good and perfect will. Thee may I set at my right hand, whose eyes my inmost substance see, and labour on at thy command, and offer all my works to thee. Give me to bear thy easy yoke, and every moment watch and pray, and still to things eternal look, and hasten to thy glorious day; For thee delightfully employ whate'er thy bounteous grace hath given, and run my course with even joy, and closely walk with thee to heaven.

Words: Charles Wesley 1707 – 1788

Music: Orlando Gibbons 1583 – 1625, arr. Paul Leddington Wright b 1951

16 All things bright and beautiful

All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small, all things wise and wonderful, the Lord God made them all. Each little flower that opens, each little bird that sings, He made their glowing colours, He made their tiny wings. The purple-headed mountain, the river running by, the sunset and the morning that brightens up the sky. The cold wind in the winter, the pleasant summer sun, the ripe fruits in the garden: He made them every one. He gave us eyes to see them, and lips that we might tell how great is God Almighty, who has made all things well.

Words: Cecil Frances Alexander 1818 – 1895

Music: John Rutter b 1945

23 How can I keep from singing?

My life flows on in endless song, above earth's lamentation I hear the sweet though far off hymn that hails a new creation: through all the tumult and the strife I hear the music ringing; it finds an echo in my soul — how can I keep from singing?

What though my joys and comforts die? the Lord my Saviour liveth; what though the darkness gather round! Songs in the night He giveth: no storm can shake my inmost calm while to that refuge clinging; since Christ is Lord of heaven and earth, how can I keep from singing?

I lift mine eyes; the cloud grows thin; I see the blue above it; and day by day this pathway smooths since first I learned to love it: the peace of Christ makes fresh my heart, a fountain ever springing: all things are mine since I am His – how can I keep from singing?

Words: Pauline T, 1868

Music: Robert Lowry 1826 – 1899
